WAPA Privacy Policy

WAPA is committed to the protection of your personal information. WAPA has undertaken to comply with the requirements of the Privacy Act 1988 and the National Privacy Principles included in the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000 and as amended.

Any personal information you provide to WAPA either directly or through your club will be used for those purposes for which the information was gathered as stated and related purposes, which can be reasonably expected in the administration of a sport. WAPA collects and retains information such as your name, address, telephone number, email address, date of birth, gender, date of joining and resignation, affiliated club, coaching and officiating training and competencies and Working with Children Card details. Failure to provide the information sought by WAPA for the purposes described may not enable the organisation to complete the membership process.

WAPA shares some of its information with Target Pistol Australia, to the extent necessary to meet their legal obligations as an incorporated body. Target Pistol Australia has a Privacy Statement that addresses its own use of information.

WAPA collects and retains information on affiliated clubs and ranges including club contact details.

If you participate in a WAPA sanctioned competition or event WAPA may use your name, image and competition result (subject to the permission of a parent or guardian in the case of a junior) in social media posts.

WAPA will not disclose any personally identifiable information obtained from any source (including conversations and correspondence) to other parties or for purposes other than those stated above unless you provide your written consent to WAPA, with the following exceptions:

1. Where there are grounds to believe that disclosure is required in order to prevent a threat to health or life;
2. Where WAPA suspects that unlawful activity is or has been engaged in, such personal information may be used to investigate the suspected unlawful activity; or
3. The disclosure is required by law.

Information that you provide through various means will be kept safe and secure within WAPA. Sensitive data will be protected with password security and two factor authentication where feasible. Only those WAPA officials authorised by the WAPA committee will have access to sensitive data. WAPA will never sell data.

WAPA may also use your personal information for direct email of news and event promotion where it is impracticable for us to obtain your prior written consent. At any time you may notify WAPA in writing if you do not wish to receive news or promotional material or other communication from WAPA. Send such request(s) to the WAPA Secretary.

Members may, upon written request, access the personal information WAPA currently holds. To the extent possible, you can access your personal information. To arrange access, please contact the WAPA Secretary in writing. WAPA endeavours to ensure that personal information held is accurate, complete and up-to-date, however if not please contact your club secretary or the WAPA Secretary.

For any purpose associated with privacy matters including the lodgement of a complaint, please contact the WAPA Secretary.

This Privacy Policy was adopted at the West Australian Pistol Association Management Committee meeting 451 held on 15 October 2026.
